“Stripe Arc is the result of a completely innovative point of view. While designing the Stripe operational series, I dreamt of a series that while emphasizing the hierarchical status of executives, it also treats employees equally. This way, the Stripe operational family embodied a structure that provides a transparent workspace for everyone.”

Murat Erciyas

EXECUTIVE

The Stripe Arc executive desk, with its rounded elegant lines, is the choice of executives who want to create harmonious and customizable spaces within the office. With its rectangular or “L” shaped wide work surface, it creates an orderly and organized workspace.

OPERATIONAL

With its rounded elegant lines, the Stripe Arc operational desk is designed to provide the best layout regardless of the number of employees and the shape of the workspace. Its structure, which allows for numerous combinations, helps employees design “unique” offices according to their own choices.

MEETING

The Stripe Arc meeting table, with its rounded elegant lines and triangular, round, square, rectangular and oval form options suitable for the environment in which it will be used, helps you make solution-oriented decisions by maximizing your productivity.
